

Revised Pro-victim Scale

Read each of the following sentences carefully and show how strongly you agree or disagree with it. To do this tick one of the answers under each statement.

	Agree	Unsure	Disagree
1. Kids who get picked on a lot usually deserve it.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. A bully is really a coward.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. Kids should not complain about being bullied.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. It's funny to see kids get upset when they are teased.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
5. Kids who hurt others weaker than themselves should be told off.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
6. Soft kids make me sick.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
7. You should not pick on someone who is weaker than you.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
8. Nobody likes a wimp.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
9. It makes me angry when a kid is picked on without reason.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
10. I like it when someone sticks up for kids who are being bullied.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

(Rigby, 1997)